

RIT Executive MBA Program Open House

Have you ever thought about going back to school to pursue your Masters in Business Administration? Here is your chance to learn about one of the best programs in the area.

The program at RIT's Saunders College of Business will begin in August of this year and finish in just 15 months. You will meet every other Friday and Saturday. Housing for our guests from the Corning area is included in tuition.

The Executive MBA program focuses on all aspects of business including accounting, finance, marketing, technology, globalization, ethics, and leadership. You will learn to think strategically, participate in an international study trip and uncover your hidden business talents.

Stop by anytime on Wednesday, May 21st between 5:00-7:00 p.m. at the Three Birds Restaurant on Market Street in downtown Corning. All are welcome and refreshments will be served.
